

Survival Skills @ Meggernie
16th-18th March 2012

The Survival Skills @ Meggernie will be held at Meggernie Outdoor Centre, Glenlyon, Perthshire on the 16th-18th March 2012. The camp will begin on Friday evening, aim to arrive between 20.30 and 22.00 and finish at approximately 14.00 on Sunday.

The activities will cover the badge requirements for the Scout Survival Skills Activity Badge. One night will be spent in a tent provided by the centre and one in a shelter you will construct. The weather will have an influence on what is actually possible at the time. Please refer to the kit list provided with your confirmation to make sure you get the most out of your weekend. Please bring a survival bag, orange plastic type will be fine. The weekend is fully catered though you will be cooking the food provided for some of your meals.

The cost of the weekend is £35.00. Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come basis. To book a place, complete the form and send a cheque for £35.00. (Cheque should be made payable to "The Scout Association"). A receipt and joining instructions including permission/medical form, will then be sent out.

If you need any further details please don't hesitate to give us a call on 01887 866231 or email at Warden@meggernie.org.uk
